Legion Post Gives Watch Party.
One of the prettiest and most enjoyable of the numerous holiday social functions in Hondo was the watch party given at the Legion Post club hall Saturday night. Dr. W. H. Smith was master of ceremonies and the whole affair went off in a most delightful and satisfactory manner.

The party opened with a musical program, consisting of vocal, piano and violin selections by local talent. This program was varied by a humorous reading by Miss Bessie Brucks and a costume dance by little Misses Lucile Boon and Adelle Decker.

After the musical program, dancing was the feature of the evening until 11:45, and the party broke up at midnight amid shouts of merriment and the exchange of New Year greetings among the departing guests.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, fruit punch and coffee were served throughout the evening.

All present spent a most enjoyable evening, and appreciate the hospitality of their princely hosts, the members of the local Legion Post.

H. E. HAASS,
Vol. Obs.

Most of Hondo's business places were closed Monday in observance of New Year. This was the closing act in a busy week of social gaiety in observance of the Christmas holidays. Numerous socials, dances, dinner parties, etc. featured the week, and there was probably more visiting among our people than ever before marked the Christmas holidays.

Aching joints, rheumatic pains, neuralgia, can be relieved quickly by a rubbing application of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It is a powerful penetrating remedy. Three sizes, 30c, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Crutchfield of Devine visited Mrs. Crutchfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sunim Tampe, at Utopia New Year. They returned to Hondo Monday and were accompanied to San Antonio by Misses Emma Britsch and Sybil O'Bryan.

A bad wound, burn or cut should be cleansed of dirt or impurities and dressed with Liquid Borozone. It heals the flesh with marvelous speed. Price, 30c, 60c and $1.20. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Misses Mollie and Lucile de Montel, Dr. O. B. Taylor, Monroe and Harry Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Davis and children spent New Year's Day in Castroville, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scherrer.

Take a dose of Herbine when you are bilious or constipated, or your stomach is out of order. It is a marvel of promptness in correcting these conditions. Price, 60c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

HONDO TESTIMONY.
Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere.

When you see Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you most always find the recommender a Hondo resident. It's the same everywhere—in 3,800 towns in the U. S. Fifty thousand people publicly thank Doan's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Hondo recommendation. Then insist on having Doan's. You will know what you are getting:

B. H. Robinson, carpenter, says: "Several years ago I was troubled with my kidneys. I had to get up about three or four times at night to pass the kidney secretions which were scalding and highly colored. I had dizzy spells and black specks would appear before my eyes. My back ached and I had sharp pains in the region of my kidneys. A friend told me of Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box. That one box of Doan's regulated my kidneys and my back never aches now."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Robinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SOME FACTS.

COMPILED BY THE EDITOR.

Storage of Cotton.

Cotton is a long suffering and much abused crop, but the old fallacy that cotton is indestructible and is hard to damage has been exploded. So much cotton is damaged after being baled that the custom has grown up in some markets of assessing "country damaged" on all bales whether actually damaged or not. After ginning a bale should not be allowed to touch the ground if it is possible to avoid doing so. In some places, also, so much wet cotton is offered that regular penalties are charged on that account against all cotton from this section. This wet condition may come from water directly added to the cotton or may be absorbed from damp concrete floors of from the ground. Every grower should place cotton to be stored in a warehouse; if possible, in a warehouse bonded under the Federal or State laws where it will be insured at the minimum rate and where the receipt will show the actual grade and staple of the cotton and so become the best class of negotiable paper. If no warehouses are available the bales should be placed in sheds and on poles or timber so as to keep them well off the ground. If no sheds are available and it is necessary to store the bales in the open they should be placed on end and on timbers or poles and should be covered with a tarpaulin or waterproof canvas or a roof should be built over them.

Cotton protected from the weather does not damage materially. Stored at home it is subject to theft and is liable to become wet and be docked on that account. Also a very high rate of insurance is demanded. Stored in warehouses the danger of theft and the rate of insurance is reduced in accordance with the standing of the warehouse. Federal and State bonded warehouses afford the safest and most economical storage and their receipts have the greatest loan value.

—ARTHUR W. PALMER, Cotton Specialist.

Corn and Hog Ratio is 10.74.

According to the United States Department of Agriculture, the producer can figure on the average price of his hogs (per 100 lbs.) over a period of years equalling the price of 10.74 bushels of corn. In other words, the report shows that during the ten-year period 1910-1919 it took 10.74 bushels of corn to put on 100 pounds of weight. The feeder who can secure an equal gain in weight by a more economical use of corn will find the greater profit in his feeding.

Records of 100 pounds gain to 8 bushels of hogged-down corn have been attained. Large growthy but not fat hogs, if properly accustomed to new corn, may make such excellent gains, if the corn is through the dough stage and indention well started at the time turned into the feed.

MENTION has been made before of the poor showing of Texas in the matter of purebred live stock. The subject is deserving of further study. Of the 120,540 purebred horses in the United States, Texas has 1,793 of them. These are divided according to breeds as follows: American saddler, 25; Belgian, 10; Clydesdale, 11; French Draft, 11; German Coach, 46; Hackney, 8; Percheron, 602; Standard Bred, 116; Thoroughbred, 173; and all other breeds, 781. Of purebred cattle the United States has 1,981,514 head of which 113,167 are in Texas. Of these, Texas has, of the beef breeds, 2,605 Aberdeen Angus, 530 Galloways, 70,021 Herefords, 5,944 Polled Durhams, 4,371 Shorthorns, and 7,272 of all others, or a total of 89,743 head. The 23,364 head of dairy cattle are divided among the breeds as follows: 19 Ayrshire; 59 Guernsey; 2,973 Holstein Friesian; 18,778 Jersey; and 1,595 of other breeds. Of the 463,504 purebred sheep in the United States, Texas has 17,119 head, divided among the breeds thus: Dorset Horn, 25; Hampshire Down, 431; Merino, 2,995; Oxford, 81; Rambouillet, 7,217; Shropshire, 1,743; Southdown, 252; and all others, 4,375. The United States has 2,049,900 head of purebred hogs. Texas can claim only 70,853 of these. They are divided among the breeds as follows: 1,507 Berkshires; 1,257 Chester White; 30,887 Duroc-Jersey; 199 Essex; 1,080 Hampshire; 33,327 Poland-China; 452 Tamworth; and 2,144 of all other breeds. A very casual study of these figures will show which are the popular breeds. A striking feature is the absence of some of the well recognized breeds found in other sections. Texas needs to give more attention to the purebreds of all kinds of live stock.

Steinle-McMaster.

The wedding of Harry Steinle from here and Miss Mildred McMaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.E. McMaster, of Yoakum, took place in the Catholic church at Yoakum, Dec. 28th, Rev. Father Kieffer officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Steinle will make their home at Somerset.

The Toy-Strewn House.

Give me the house where the toys are strewn.
Where the dolls are asleep in the chairs,
Where the building blocks and the toy balloon
And the soldiers guard the stairs;
Let me step in the house where the tiny cart
With the horses rule the floor,
And the rest comes to my weary heart,
For I am at home once more.

Give me the house with the toys about,
With the battered old train of cars,
The box of paints and the books left out
And the ship with the broken spars,
Let me step in a house at the close of day
That is littered with children's toys,
And dwell once more in the haunts to play
With the echoes of by-gone noise.

Give me the house where the toys are seen,
The house where the children romp,
And I'll happier be than man has been
'Neath the gilded dome of pomp,
Let me see the litter of bright-eyed play
Strewn over the parlor floor,
And the joys I knew in a far-off day
Will gladden my heart once more.

Whoever has lived in a toy-strewn home,
Though feeble he be and gray,
Will yearn, no matter how far he roams,
For the glorious disarray
Of the little home with the littered floor
That was his in the by gone days,
And his heart will throb as it throbbed before
When he rests where a baby plays.
—Author Unknown.

No man is rocked to Godliness in a hammock. —Theodore L. Cuyler.

REGARD no vice so small, that
Thou may'st brook it;
No virtue so small that thou may'st
Overlook it.

—W. K. ALGER.

ONE of the greatest thinkers and writers America ever produced, General Albert Pike, wrote, "Believe that there is a God, that helps our Father; that he has a paternal interest in our welfare and improvement; that he has given us means by which we can escape from sin and ruin; that he has destined us to a future life of eternal progress toward perfection and a knowledge of himself. Believe this, and you can live calmly, labor resolutely, deny yourself cheerfully, suffer patiently, hope steadfastly and be a conqueror in the great struggle of life."

HERE on the threshold of a new year it is well to take a survey of the one just past in the hope that the lamp of experience may guide our feet from the errors into which we strayed last year. The country has been passing through an era of social follies and vices that must have made the devil chortle with glee. Extravagant expenditures in useless pleasures and luxuries have never been equaled before. And crime has swept rampant and red-handed, like a scourge, over the land. Violations of the law have been rampant from the denizens of the slum to the petted favorites of fortune and high degree. Let us hope and pray and work for a new era of clean, upright living; of honest, wholesome endeavor; of a cheerful obedience to all wholesome law and a weeding out of those laws that hinder and do not help. By so doing, may we reasonably hope for a recession from many of the evils that have so sorely afflicted us in the past and cheerfully and hopefully look forward to a period of peacefulness, prosperity and contentment.

HEARING that a Ku Klux Klan had been organized or that such an organization was under consideration in Young County, Sheriff John W. Saye of that county is out in a signed public statement in which he puts the aggregation of potential outlaws on notice that "Young county will not be ruled by a mob." He further avers that no member of the organization can hold a commission from him as deputy. Good for Sheriff Saye! What a pity Texas hasn't about two-hundred and fifty more Sheriffs like him! What a marked contrast is this to the Sheriff of Travis County who admitted to a Travis County grand jury that he is a member and paid his $14.50 fees for membership in the Klan, and some three or four of whose deputies are under bond on a charge of perpetrating a gang murder. This same Sheriff of Travis county is the same who, when asked who had desecrated Travis County courthouse property by posting thereon anonymous Ku Klux threats, blandly replied that he "did not know, and was not trying to find out." With such a misfit in the responsible position of sheriff it is small wonder that the lives and persons of the people are so poorly protected in the capital city of Texas and Travis county.

SPEAKING in broad generality government is the ruling power in political society. Its origin as a fact cannot be established historically, for history begins long after government in some form existed. Its origin is, after all, an inference. We must reason back from what is to what was rather than from what was to what is. We must assume that man, in all of the ages, was a social being and was impelled to companionship by the social instinct. Once assembled in a social state order was essential to the social organization and order could only be reached through government and government only maintained by law. The right to live and to enjoy life was implanted in him; whether this right (I speak in the singular for the second right is embraced in the first) was divine, originating with his creation, or was a development of his evolution I need not consider. This right may be termed generally personal liberty and designated as embraced in that much abused term natural right. When the individual became a unit in the aggregation he made some surrender of this right to the control and order of the aggregation. As he reserved to himself the right to live he conceded the same right to all other individuals in the aggregation. If, therefore, he intentionally took human life not in defense of his own nor in defense of another, nor in defense of his property, nor in defense of the aggregation, the government of the aggregation for the preservation of order and the protection of the right in all others, could go to the extent of depriving him of his life or his liberty. —Thomas H. Franklin.

ENGLAND, it seems, has again played the United States for a dupe and made of them a convenient cat's paw to pull her chestnuts out of the fire. The disarmament conference was called at Washington ostensibly to lay plans for stopping the extravagant expenditures of money for the maintenance of armies and navies during peace times. With the cunning duplicity has long characterized British imperialism, the English delegates led the conference into the discussion of almost every thing conceivable in the confusion England has agreed to throw into the discard of alliance with Japan. This alliance Japan had become obnoxious to England's most influential powerful colonial provinces. It was obnoxious that the colonies were beginning to be resentful. Hence England's desire to be rid of it, and chose as an opportunity the disarmament conference and as a most substitution of a new agreement, all of this transaction, shaly though be, we might have no cause for regret were it not that the conference allowed themselves to veiled into the agreement an United States thus become a pawn with England in her dealings with Japan. The American people said emphatically at the polls the last they exercised their sovereignty they would have no "entanglement" with any foreign power. If, if possible, a worse surrender that principle than was proposed the late and unlamented League of Nations. It is to be hoped that this effort to betray this country into hands of our British enemies will with the same fate as Benedict Arnold's and Woodrow Wilson's a few red-blooded Americans United States Senate, the American people need but an opportune place this proposition where buried the League of Nations disposal.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it."

A Year of Victory.
Bishop Ainsworth, who is in charge of four of the five conferences of our Church in Texas, has gathered the statistics touching the work of the Church in the State for the year just closed. Texas Methodism has made this year the greatest record in its history. There have been 33,774 additions on profession of faith during the conference year, which is about 10,000 in excess of any previous year's record in the State
The widespread financial depression has materially interfered with a number of building projects and reduced the amount contributed through the regular channels for Church purposes, and yet, notwithstanding this, Texas Methodists have contributed a total of $700,000 for missionary work and a total of $7,000,000 for all purposes during the year.
We are profoundly grateful to Almighty God for this victorious year. As Methodists we have placed upon us, by reason of our strength, a tremendous responsibility. Let us spend much time on our knees during these opening days of the new conference year. There are yet better days ahead and if we depend upon God we will realize in the future greater victories than we have ever dreamed of.--Texas Christian Advocate.

DECEMBER ACROSTIC

IF THE following words are arranged in order, one under the other, their initials will spell the name of something relating to Christmas. As a further help, we will say that each word has three letters:

1. A small insect.
2. Word used in speaking of ocean tide.
3. More than one.
4. Word used in asking questions.
5. Adjective meaning not rigid.
6. A small part of the body.
7. Head covering.
8. Verb to be mistaken.
9. Month of the year.—Successful Farming.

Christmas Is Children's Day

THE message of Christmas is love. Its emblem is radiant, thankful, contented childhood. Without love and without children there could be no real Christmas. The form might survive but the substance would be lacking.

Unhappy must be the adult who cannot make himself a child again in spirit at the Yuletide. For Christmas is the universal children's day. Men and women are superfluous except as they make themselves partners with those whom the day glorifies.

Let us, then, lay aside the affectation and arrogance of manhood and womanhood and be children again. Let us adopt their point of view and put ourselves in their places—in the places of these sons and daughters of ours and of the sons and daughters of our neighbors. It was only a year or so ago, as it seems, when we hung our well-worn stockings in a row along the mantel shelf, while our fathers and mothers looked on with unfeigned pleasure at the innocent confidence we showed in the morrow.

Even as you and I. It all comes back in a flood of memories. Life was simpler then. Our desires were less pretentious than those our children voice now. Modest remembrances they were that bulged toe and heel of the stockings mother knit.

Life and its circumstances change, but the essence of Christmas never. The same happy childhood, the same restlessness, the same snail-like creeping of time as the holiday approaches. The same parenthood, too—the same planning across the reading table after the boys and girls are abed, the same loving consideration of what this or that child most desires and how far the family purse can be stretched to permit some further purchase.

Every home is assured a Christmas lit by a great, warm heart pulsating in tune with the hopes and joys of childhood.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

Children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 75c per bottle.

A TONIC

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is simply Iron and Quinine suspended in syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs QUININE to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. Destroys Malarial germs and Grip germs by its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect. 60c.

The Joy of the True Spirit of Christmas

ARE you willing to forget what you have done for other people and remember what other people have done for you; to ignore what the world owes you, and to think what you owe the world; to put your rights in the background, and your duties in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy; to own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give life; to close your book of complaints against the universe, and look around for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness—are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking whether your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear on their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open—are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the eternal love? Then you can keep Christmas. And if you can keep it for a day, why not always? But you can never keep it alone.—Dr. Henry Van Dyke.

Soft Sugar Vanilla Wafers.

Cream together two cupfuls of soft sugar and one cupful of butter. Add the yolks of five eggs well beaten and a generous flavoring of vanilla. Sift two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half a teaspoonful of soda with two cupfuls of flour. Add alternately the well-beaten whites of the five eggs and the prepared flour with enough more to make a soft dough. Roll thin and cut in small rounds, diamonds or squares.

Distributed Cares.

"Why are June weddings so popular?"

"Because of the natural tendency of conditions to adjust themselves. People shouldn't be expected to buy wedding presents and Christmas presents all at the same time."

H. A. Mercer has disposed of his interest in the Fly & Mercer drug store to Elmer J. Leinweber, and the new proprietor can now be found behind the counter. The people of Hondo welcome the young man into the business life of the town, and hope for him a prosperous and pleasant business career.

"Do you think it is healthy to keep your hogs in the house?" a social investigator asked a native.

"Well, I dunno," he drawled, "but I been a keeping my hawgs there for fourteen years and I ain't never lost one of 'em yet."—Farm and Ranch.

Paul Weynand, the Overland man, reports the sale of three new Overland Light Fours—one to T. C. Barnes, one to W. R. Speece and one to George Weimers.

Centenary "Pay-Up-Week"

Up to date we have been wonderfully successful in carrying forward the whole Centenary program. To November 1, we had paid on individual pledges, Sunday Schools and Leagues a total of $12,057,151.49. Have sent out 162 new missionaries. The magnitude of our Centenary program is indicated by the following items of appropriations for 1922: for China, Japan, Korea, Brazil, Cuba, Mexico, Africa, $1,243,805.98. For Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Siberia and Manchuria, $720,185.00. For Home Missions, $725,040.00. The money is invested in new missionaries, church buildings, schools, hospitals, evangelistic work, Christian literature, relief work. A detailed statement is given in Centenary Bulletin for October.

The West Texas Conference has paid on Centenary pledges up to December 1, $283,345.11; balance due $230,075.89.

January 8—15 is the week designated by the West Texas Conference as "Pay-Up Week" on the Centenary pledges.

There are two all-impelling reasons for the best possible payments on the Centenary pledges.

First, because the Commission needs every dollar now due for home and foreign mission appropriations.

Second, because the West Texas Conference Board of Missions needs every dollar of the 10 percent coming to this Board for our own Conference work.

It is confidently expected that every living Methodist in our Conference will do his or her very best during this "Pay-Up Week."

The West Texas Conference has a way of succeeding in spite of the hardest situations. Now, all together to do this big business in the name of the Lord.

J. T. CURRY,

Conference Missionary Secretary

Charles K. Holloway.

Charles K. Holloway, a brother of Mrs. H. J. Meyer and Messrs. Will and Tom Holloway, died at his home at Jacksonville, Texas, January 1st, 1922, aged 31 years.

Deceased was by profession a lawyer and was for a while county attorney of Floyd county, but had resigned and moved to Jacksonville where he was engaged in private practice. He was fast gaining an enviable reputation in his profession, and his passing is a distinct loss to the bar of Texas. He had visited his relatives here at various times and had friends here who will be grieved to learn of his demise.

Besides his wife and two small children he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Holloway of La-Grange, and a number of brothers and sisters in other parts of the state who are grieved over his untimely passing.
